Doing church right

Membership Notice

All members of the General Conference of the Church of God (Seventh Day) who will be at least 18 years of age as of July 11, 2023, and who wish to vote during our 2023 convention, should register for convention no later than May 1, 2023. They must indicate on the form their intention to vote. Because of the time it may take to validate some memberships, we cannot guarantee that those who register later will be able to vote.

Additionally, because of the time it takes to process membership applications, this deadline also applies to anyone wishing to become a member before our 2023 convention. No new memberships will be issued the week of convention (July 10-15, 2023).

Leaving the Old, Embracing the New

One might naturally expect an every-other-month publication to begin each year with a January-February issue and end with a November-December issue. That is exactly what is done with our flagship publication, Bible Advocate. However, because of the BA's publication schedule, Churchright ends one year and begins the next with a December-January issue. As a result, Churchright's December-January issues straddle years, decades, and centuries.

I hope and pray as I write this front-page article that this issue straddles not only the end of 2022 and the beginning of 2023 but, more important, the end of a period of pandemic-related fear and isolation among many of our members and congregations. I also hope it is the beginning of an era of freedom and fellowship for which we've all been longing. For most of three years, many of us have been masked and separated, literally and metaphorically. We long to drop our masks and come together to more effectively focus on Jesus and follow His plan.

The years 2020 and 2021 saw us forced to cancel cherished and important gatherings, such as Super Sabbaths, the 2020 Ministerial Council meeting, and the 2021 General Conference Convention. But in 2022 we began coming together again in retreats, camps, Super Sabbaths, leadership meetings, and a very well attended Ministerial Council meeting. The joy of fellowship restored was palpable.

The year 2023 brings with it an even greater opportunity to come together: our General Conference Convention, scheduled for July 10-15 in Covington, Kentucky. Please be sure to read articles and promotional items about convention in this issue and in future issues of Churchright and the BA.

But don't just read about our 2023 convention. Register and plan to attend! If the convention website isn't already up and running by the time you read this, it soon will be. Stay tuned!

Coming to Jesus and living for Him is all about leaving the old and embracing the new. Let's commit ourselves to do that in increasingly significant ways as we step from 2022 into 2023, together.

Celebrating in Saginaw

Fall started off with a bang when Devon Perez was baptized on September 24 by his father, Jeremy.

The Holy Spirit must have been working among the youth. The following week, on October 1, we had to schedule another baptism service. At Brother Tom Winchell's sister's home, the following individuals were baptized: Aria Rodriguez; Steven Rodriguez, Jr.; and Joslyn, Levi, and Lucas Ijames. Hearing from God

The district Women's Retreat was held at Adrian Camp in Adrian, Georgia, September 9-11. The theme was "He Hears My Voice," based on Psalm 55:17.

One hundred forty-six women attended from seventeen different churches in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Kentucky. Sister Beverly Ricketts (NW Atlanta) presented a timely message entitled "The Ears of God," and Sister Ruth Cruz (Lexington, North Carolina) also presented a moving message on the theme.

The sisters from Stone Mountain gave every attendee a beautiful plant and small gift with candy. Our praise and worship teams were exceptional, with five churches assisting with the music. Sister Esmeralda Candelario (Summerfield, North Carolina) and her daughter, Katherine, led the music at different times and assisted with the PowerPoint presentations.

We had a few activities during the retreat, led by Olga Cruz and Edlin and Lesbia Lopez. Sister Allison Krome also provided a community service activity for the ladies to take back home and start doing as a group or individually.

On Sabbath afternoon leaders from all churches attended meetings for the youth group and women's ministry. After our our women's leaders meeting, we started a chat on WhatsApp for all women leaders to use and plan for our next retreat. Leaders from other churches who did not attend will be added as well.

After thanking all presenters, leaders, and helpers, we concluded the retreat with Sister Esmeralda leading the song "Blessings" and Sister Jeddie Larry and Lili Apen blessing the women with prayers.

Council in Kentucky

The North American Ministerial Council (NAMC) met in Covington, Kentucky, October 10-15. We are grateful to the pastors, licensed and credentialed ministers, and observers who gathered and to all who made this meeting possible.

The council took the following actions:

- Elected these officers to a two-year term on the Executive Committee:

Daniel Flores, president; Wayne Hrenyk, vice president; Monico Muffley, secretary.

- Elected the following members to a four-year term on the License and Credentials Committee: Steve Kyner, Noe Reyes, and Andy Hassen; elected the following members to a two-year term: Jhabel Chagollan, David Lozano, and John Lemley.
- Elected the following members to a two-year term on the Nominations Committee: Eddie Villalba, Santiago Chavez, and Brian Franks.
- Received reports of the License and Credentials Committee, the Study Committee on Old and New Covenants, and the Study Committee on the Role of Women.

One of many emotive times during council was the “Pastoral Appreciation Moment.” We remembered twenty-two pastors who now sleep in the Lord, as well as the service of forty credentialed ministers and ninety-four licensed ministers. We also recognized twenty-seven certified local pastors and one hundred and twenty-four local leaders.

Thanks to all women, including pastors’ spouses, who attended this event. They gathered every day to hear the Word of God and pray together.

We experienced a wonderful time of fellowship, worship, and instruction in God’s Word, reminding us that we should be imitators of God (Ephesians 5:1). Let us closely follow Jesus every day (Matthew 16:24). Let us be a church that thinks like Jesus, speaks like Jesus, teaches like Jesus, preaches the gospel like Jesus, has compassion like Jesus, suffers like Jesus. Let us be an example in everything so we can say with a clear conscience, “Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1, NKJV).

– Daniel Flores
NAMC President

Thanks to these people who took photos at the NAMC meetings: Reuben Corrales, Gabriel Perez, Martin Ramirez, and Jamin Teran.

Artios workshops. On September 24, the Artios Center for Vibrant Leadership held workshops at the Pharr, TX church called “Envision What’s Next: Small Church, Big Vision.” Elder Whaid Rose conducted three workshops and focus groups to collaborate, learn, and create a shift in small churches with a big vision. At the leadership dinner, all the leaders of Area 7 were invited to a Q&A with Brother Rose. To schedule this training in your local church, visit <https://center.artioscollege.org/training/>.

Come to Covington!

It was encouraging to be in Covington, Kentucky, during the NAMC meetings as pastors, their wives, and other interested members met for the first time in four years. That meeting was just a preview of what we will experience when we gather for the 2023 GC Convention meeting July 10-15 in Covington. Attendees had a sneak peek at some of the accommodations, attractions, and beauty of the setting. Talk with your pastor for a firsthand report.

In the October-November issue of Churchright, important information was provided to help you prepare for the registration process. Ask at your church if you have not received that issue, or you can view it online at churchright.org. Registration for the event will be open in early January. Here’s how to receive the most up-to-date information when it’s available:

- Join the GC Convention 2023 Facebook page.
- Follow the General Conference of the Church of God - Seventh Day Facebook page.
- Watch for the 2023 Convention website at cog7.org/convention.

In addition to gathering with fellow believers, a rich, inspiring program is planned for children, youth, young adults, and adults. A nursery program will also be available. Watch publications for more details. Each night, you will be encouraged in your walk of inviting your friends and relatives to “Come and See” what I have found in Jesus.

Northern Kentucky is home to two of the leading religious attractions in the US: the Creation Museum and the Ark Encounter, where we are planning a visit for Monday, July 10. As you walk through this life-size replica of the ark, you will be exposed to detailed biblical history leading to Jesus and God’s plan for humanity.

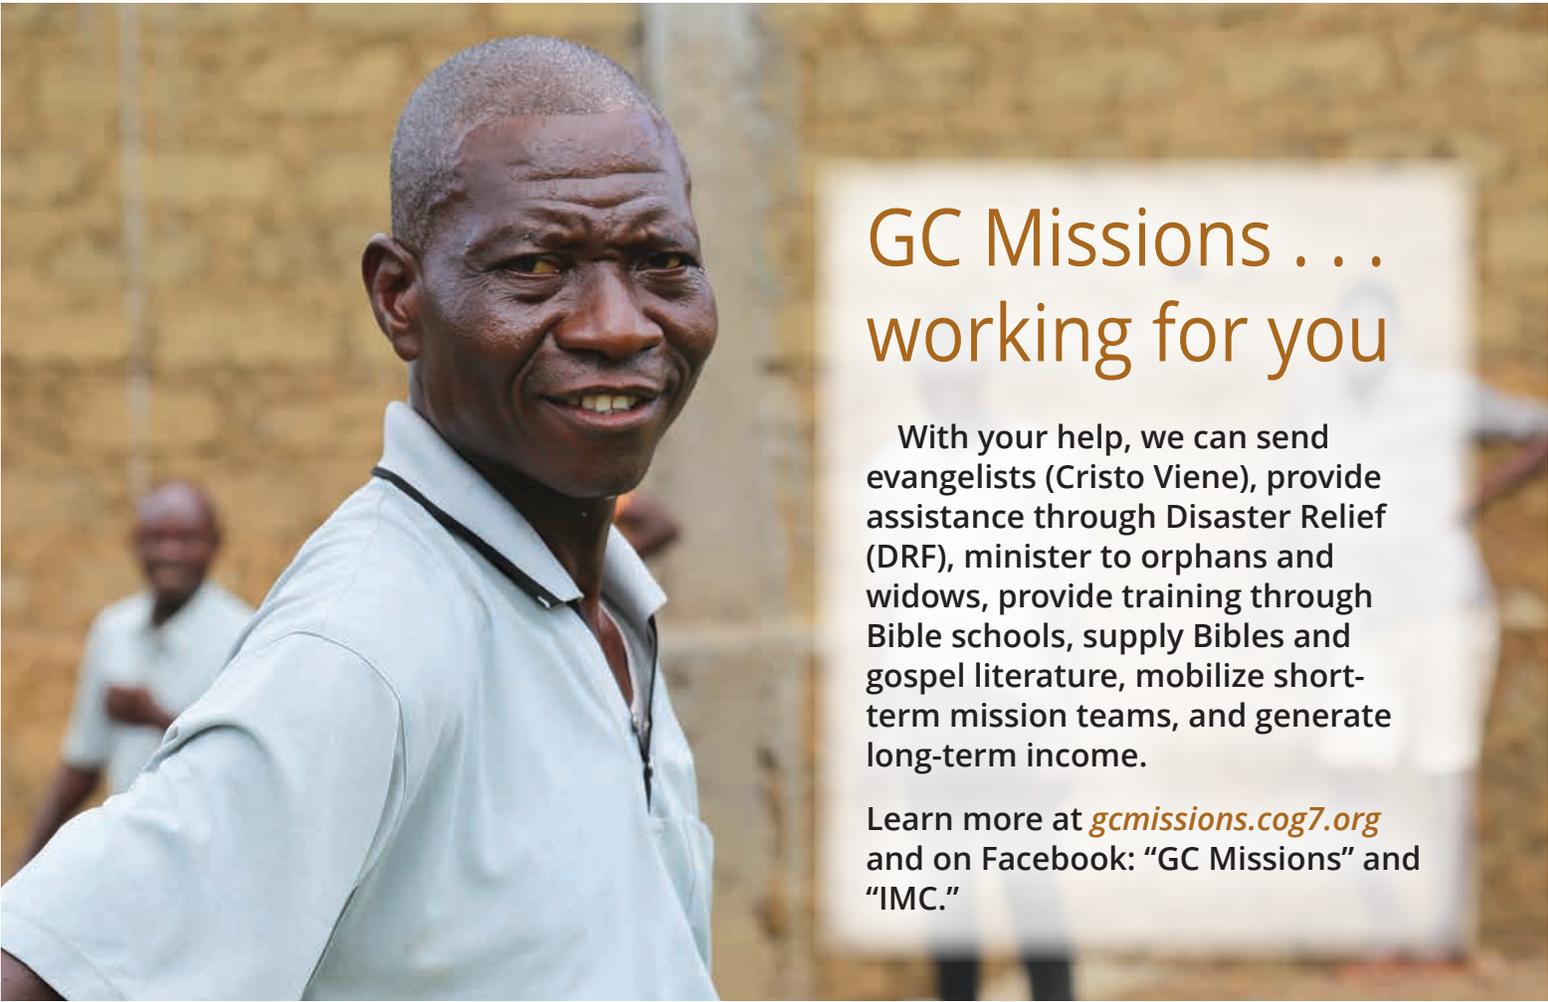

Many of you take vacation time to attend convention, so we are pleased to recommend Covington, Kentucky. In addition to the Creation Museum and Ark Encounter, the area is home to the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, Mainstrasse (a nineteenth century German village), and much more! Come early or stay late; the hotel rates apply four days prior or after convention.

At this time, the Convention Committee is working with our partners in Northern Kentucky to prepare the registration process for the hotels so you will receive the convention rates. Please be patient as we complete this process, and watch the previously mentioned resources to stay informed.

GC Convention 2023 will be a great celebration as we once again will be together learning, worshipping, and serving together. Remember that the convention officially launches on Monday night, July 10, with a reception. This is always a favorite activity when our members come together with warm greetings. Will you be there?

– Convention Committee
